SECTION 1: BETTING HOUSE RULES

1. Sports Betting House Rules

1.1. These Bally Bet Betting Rules (“House Rules”), together with Bally Bet Terms of Use @) (“Terms of Use”) form the “Governing Documents” (as defined in the Terms of Use) and are the terms and conditions applicable to all wagering activity on Bally Bet. By accessing Bally Bet (as defined in the Terms of Use), you acknowledge reading, understanding, and accepting these House Rules, including Section 1 (Sports Betting House Rules), Section 2 (Sports Specific Rules), Exhibit A and the Governing Documents. These House Rules are subject to change at any time in Bally Bet sole discretion, subject to any required regulatory approvals, and shall be immediately in effect and binding on you. Bally Bet's final determination as to the interpretation and application of the House Rules and the events, markets, odds, pricing, selections, and payouts is binding on you.

1.2 Only eligible individuals 21 years of age or older, not excluded, and located in the State of Louisiana may place a wager.

1.2.1 Bally Bet will not accept wagers from unapproved parishes as established by the Louisiana Gaming Control Board.

1.3 Individuals may not act as an agent or proxy to place a wager on behalf of another.

1.4 Any person that is prohibited from wagering by law, rule, policy of Bally Bets, self-exclusion, or pursuant to Louisiana Revised Statutes 27:27:1.

1.5 No athlete, competitor, referee, official, coach, manager, medical professional or athletic trainer or employee or contractor of a team or athletic organization who has access to nonpublic information concerning an athlete or team may engage in sports wagering on an event or the performance of an individual in an event in which the person is participating or otherwise has access to nonpublic or exclusive information.

1.6 Any other person whose participation may undermine the integrity of the sports wagering or the sports event.

2. Wagers

2.1. Bally Bet accepts wagers on its posted terms unless otherwise posted or noted on printed media.

2.2. Bally Bet reserves the right to suspend or close any market at any time (notwithstanding any parts of the House Rules) and may void wagers in a market or void an entire market, subject to restrictions on voiding wagers as may be set by the applicable regulatory authorities of the State of Louisiana.

2.3. Bally Bet reserves the right to refuse any wager.

2.4. Bally Bet reserves the right to determine minimum and maximum wager limits on all events, including, but not limited to, on a wager by wager or customer by customer basis. All winning wagers will be paid based off the actual ticket written and or wager accepted. Regardless of limits, book must pay winners as recorded on the ticket or other wager document. If a player attempts to make a wager resulting in a possible win greater than the maximum, Bally Bet must reduce the wager to reduce the win to the maximum payout.

2.5. Bally Bet may offer lower limits during the overnight hours.

2.6. Wagering options, other than in-play wagers, are available up until the official start time, unless otherwise specified by Bally Bet.

2.7. In-Play wagers will be subject to a delay prior to acceptance, at Bally Bet discretion.

2.8. A straight wager resulting in a push will be declared “no action” and refunded unless the straight wager includes a draw option, in which case the draw option will be graded as a winner and all other selections will be graded as losers.

2.9. Canceled events that have either not started or have not met the minimum length for an event to be official, will result in the applicable wager being declared “no action” and refunded. Parlays and teasers that involve a canceled event will reduce to the next lowest number of selections. If a canceled event selection reduces a two-team teaser to one selection, the wager will be refunded. If a canceled event selection reduces a two-team parlay to one selection, the wager will pay on the remaining selection price as a straight wager.

2.10. Prohibitions exist in the State of Louisiana that restrict the acceptance of wagers on teams and/or participants.

2.11. Subject to the Maximum Win (as defined below), your wager amount is capped at your Eligible Balance (as defined in the Terms of Use). All winning wagers will be paid based off the actual ticket written and or wager accepted. Again, the book is accountable in the amount noted on the wager ticket.

2.12. Bally Bet reserves the right to restrict, suspend, limit, or otherwise revise the availability of a promotion on a wager by wager or customer by customer basis.

2.13. Notification of all odds/pricing changes are disseminated via the Bally Bet mobile app and will notify you of the change prior to placing a wager if odds/pricing changes during the bet placement process.

2.14. You accept responsibility for managing the selection and placement of your sports wagers.

3. Payouts

3.1. Payouts on wagers are made according to the terms, conditions, rules, policies, or other agreements of or with Bally Bet. All final decisions on payouts are made by Bally Bet.

3.2. Bally Bet will not accept wagers on NON-BALLY MILLIONS where the win amount is more than $550,000 (“Maximum Win”).

3.3. If Bally Bet determines that one or more persons have acted to circumvent the terms, conditions, rules, policies, or other agreements of or with Bally Bet, including, but not limited to, the wagers and wager amounts applicable to you or the maximum payout limits set by these House Rules, Bally Bet may subject them, collectively, to Maximum Win or void the applicable wagers.

3.4. Win amounts on all current price wagers are determined using standard money line calculations, unless otherwise specified.

3.5. Final calculations rounded to the nearest cent.

4. Parlays

4.1. Win amounts on parlay wagers in which all selections are priced at -110 will be paid using a pay-chart to calculate win amounts.

4.2. Win amounts on parlay wagers in which any selection deviates from -110 will be calculated at current price using standard money line calculations.

4.3. Pushes and refunds in a parlay will cause the wager to reduce to the remaining number of valid selections and reduce the win amount in a corresponding manner based on the remaining valid selections. If the parlay reduces to a single selection, the wager will payout as a straight wager based on the price of the remaining selection price. If the parlay is a progressive parlay the selection that PUSHES is considered a losing selection and will pay appropriately to the progressive parlay pay chart.

4.4. Bally Bet will not accept parlay wagers where the win amount exceeds the Maximum Win of $550,000.

4.5. Proposition wagers and Future wagers may be parlayed depending on the specific nature of the proposition or future market.

4.6. See Exhibit A for Bally Bet parlay payout pay charts, which Bally Bet may revise in its sole discretion, and which is subject to any payout limitations set by Bally Bet.

5. Teasers

5.1. Pushes and refunds in a teaser will cause the wager to reduce to the remaining number of valid selections and the win amount to reduce in a corresponding manner based on the number of remaining valid selections to the appropriate payout from the pay-chart associated with the wager. If the teaser reduces to a single selection, the wager will be declared “no action” and refunded.

5.1.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a push on one or more valid selections in a 7-point basketball or 10-point football teaser will result in the wager being graded as a loss. If a leg of the teaser is NO ACTIONED due to a game being cancelled, then the teaser is invalid (must be 3 selections) and will be refunded.

5.2. Teasers will be a loser when one of the valid selections in the teaser fails to cover the teased selection(s) regardless of the result of the other selections.

5.3. See Exhibit A for Bally Bet teaser payout pay charts, which Bally Bet may revise in its sole discretion, and which is subject to any payout limitations set by Bally Bet.

6. Promotional and Boosted Enhanced Price Wagers

6.1. All enhanced price wagers will be settled in accordance with these House Rules, unless otherwise expressly set forth in the rules governing the enhanced price wager.

6.2. Bally Bet reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to: (i) void any wager with enhanced prices, if the enhanced price was intended for pregame wagers only and an enhanced price wager was accepted after the relevant event started; and (ii), in the event of errors in pricing or terms and conditions of an enhanced price wager, settle the wager at the intended pricing and terms and conditions.

7. In-Play Wagering

7.1. In-play wagering allows for placing wagers during an ongoing event or market. Bally Bet may partially or fully suspend an in-play market at any time and impose a delay on any or all in-play wagers, including, but not limited to, timing, placement, or acceptance delays. Bally Bet reserves the right to void any part of any or all wagers on in-play events that are not completed.

7.2. You acknowledge and understand that there may be timing issues with respect to the broadcast of sports events, including differences in timing between the live event and the broadcast of such live event, and the timing and availability of the in-play market may affect the offering, placement, and acceptance of wagers on in-play markets, including, but not limited to, extended time for accepting and processing an in-play wager. If an in-play market does not suspend or close at the applicable scheduled closure time or if no scheduled markets close, then as determined by Bally Bet, all wagers received or accepted after the applicable intended closure time will be void. Any in-play wager placed after the outcome of the event or market was known or otherwise already determined will be void.

7.3. You acknowledge, understand and agree that (i) you may not be able to see or otherwise receive current or recent information or data with respect to in-play wagering markets, which may be a result of, among other things, Internet and network connectivity, the capabilities of hardware and devices, delays in coverage, information or data, human, software and/or system errors, bugs or defects, conflicts or failures of any software or system to operate in accordance with the rules of the relevant event, wager, product or service or communication, timing or display errors; and (ii) Bally Bet shall not be liable for any inability to have current or recent information or data, regardless of the reason for such inability.

8. Proposition Wagers

8.1. Proposition Wagers – Subject to Louisiana’s prohibited bets policy; see Section 17.

8.1.1. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all single game wagers related to that game/event shall be NO ACTION and refunded.

8.1.2. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all Season long Team and player statistical props and wagers related to that game/event shall be ACTION. For example: The win and loss of the forfeited game will count, the player and team statistical total(s) wagers will have ACTION.

8.2. Proposition wagers in respect of a team or a player’s performance in a single game or event, or for a specified time period within a single game or event, will be declared “no action” and refunded if the game or event is not completed within the timeframe and on the basis set out in the Sport Specific Rules for such game or event, or if the specified time period is not completed, as applicable, unless otherwise specified, regardless of the status of the wagered proposition.

8.3. Proposition wagers in respect of a player in this Section 8.1 will be declared “no action” and refunded if the applicable player does not participate in the applicable game or event. Subject to any Sport Specific Rules, a player is deemed to have participated in a game or event if said player sees game action during the game or the specified time period applicable to the proposition wager, as applicable.

8.4. Notwithstanding Sections 8.1.1 and 8.1.2, but subject to any Sport Specific Rules, any proposition wager in respect of a team or player in a single game or event, or a specified time period within a single game or event, that is placed six (6) or more days before the applicable game or event takes place shall be considered a Future Wager that is subject to the provisions of Section 9 of these House Rules.

8.5. Proposition wagers in respect of a team or a player's performance over a specified number of games or events, or over an entire season will be declared "no action" and refunded if the original schedule of games or events is not completed, unless otherwise specified, regardless of the status of the wagered proposition.

8.6. Proposition wagers in respect of a team or a player's performance over a series of games or events (e.g., a best-of-7 series) will be declared "no action" and refunded if the nature of the series is changed (e.g., a series that is originally scheduled to be best-of-7 is changed to best-of-5 or best-of-3), regardless of the status of the wagered proposition.

8.7. Subject to Sections 8.2. and 8.3, proposition wagers in this Section will be considered "action" regardless of the failure of any player and/or team to compete for any reason, including but not limited to coaching discretion, injury, illness, change in contractual status, trade, load management, failure to qualify, suspension, sanction, incarceration, or disciplinary action(s) levied against a player or team.

9. Future Wagers

9.1. Future wagers, including but not limited to Team to Qualify for Playoffs, Divisional Winner, Conference Winner, League Championship Winner will be graded based on the applicable leagues or the sport's governing body's determination of such result, as applicable. If no winner is declared by the league or the sport's governing body, then the wagers will be declared "no action" and refunded. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any subsequent vacancy of a title will not be recognized, and wagers will not be regraded.

9.2. For future wagers where participants are declared a tie, the Dead Heat rules apply.

9.3. Subject to any Sport Specific Rules set out below, future wagers will be considered "action" regardless of any change in schedule or season length, game or event cancellation, game or event relocation, team relocation, and/or the failure of any player and/or team to compete for any reason, including but not limited to coaching discretion, injury, illness, change in contractual status, trade, load management, failure to qualify, suspension, sanction, incarceration, or disciplinary action(s) levied against a player or team.

9.4. Certain teams or participants may not be offered as a wager option due to regulatory requirements. If such a team or participant is the winner of the game or event, then all wagers on the game or event will be graded as losers.

10. Results and Settlement

10.1. The winner of an event or market will be determined on the date of the event(s) or the market's conclusion and in the time zone in which the event takes place.

10.2. Except as set forth elsewhere in these House Rules, events and markets may be settled based on the results provided by:

1. the applicable sport's governing body,
2. data providers and,
3. third party media or public information at the time of the conclusion of the event or market.

10.3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Bally Bet may result and settle an event or market prior to the completion of said event or market, including, but not limited to, by resulting and settling said event or market in-part.

10.4. Bally Bet reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to void any event or market if the event or market result cannot be determined to Bally Bet satisfaction.

10.5. Bally Bet does not recognize suspended games, protests, scoring changes, abandoned, cancelled, or postponed events and markets and overturned decisions and does not regrade or resettle events or markets as a result of any of the foregoing except for MLB playoff baseball (see specific Baseball rules).

10.6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Bally Bet reserves the right to determine and/or amend the settlement of any event or market, in order to, among other things, resolve a scenario where sources of event or market data provide differing results, to correct any error caused by incorrect event or market data or to correct an error in the resulting or settlement process.

10.7. You expressly acknowledge and agree that the determination of Bally Bet with respect to any results and settlement of an event or market are final, determinative and binding and Bally Bet may revise account balances to reflect changes based on the determined results and settlement.

11. Change of Venue

11.1. Subject to the Sport Specific Rules, a change in venue shall be addressed as follows:

11.1.1. For wagering on markets or events for a team sport: if the scheduled venue is changed after a wager is placed, all wagers placed before the change in venue will be considered “no action” and refunded.

11.1.2. For wagering on markets or events for other than a team sport: if the scheduled venue is changed after a wager is placed, all wagers placed before the change in venue are considered “action”.

12. Dead Heats

12.1. Dead heat rules apply when there are two or more wager selections in an event that result in a tie.

12.1.1. If a dead heat exists to win an outright market, the payout for a wager placed will be calculated by dividing the amount wagered by the number of selections that tied and multiplying the resulting quotient by the applicable odds of the wager.

12.1.2. If a dead heat exists in a “To Finish in the Top ‘X’” market, the payout for a wager placed if the sum of the number of dead heat finishers and the finishers who placed ahead of such dead heat finishers (if any) exceeds ‘X’ will be calculated by dividing the available spots for dead heat finishers in the Top ‘X’ (i.e. ‘X’ minus the number of finishers who placed ahead of such dead heat finishers (if any)) by the number of dead heat finishers, and multiplying the resulting quotient by the amount wagered and the applicable odds of the wager.

12.1.2.1. By way of example, if four golfers tie for third place in a “To Finish in the Top 5” market and you placed a $100 wager at 18/1 on one of the golfers tied for third, your payout would be calculated as follows: $((5-2)/4) \times $100 \times 18/1$ for a payout of $1350.

13. Pricing, Odds, Sports Data and Other Information

13.1. All events, markets, odds, sports data, pricing, selections, and payouts are displayed within the System, including the App.

13.2. Any sport event data, including, but not limited to, event results, scores or other statistical data is provided “as is” with no representation or warranty.

13.3. Bally Bet reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to refuse, counter or otherwise reject any wager and to delete, limit or otherwise change any event, market, odds, pricing, selection or payout prior to accepting a wager.

13.4. Gaming system products and services, including user interfaces, display information and data related to events, markets, odds, sports data, pricing, selections and payouts prior to and at the time when you place a wager, and any information or data may change at any time prior to and up to the time you attempt to place a wager. You are responsible for understanding all events, markets, odds, sports data, pricing, selections and payouts, and the information and data related to each of the foregoing, prior to and at the time you are placing a wager and agree that Bally Bet' final determination as to the interpretation and application of these House Rules and the events, markets, odds, sports data, pricing, selections and payouts, and the information and data related to each of the foregoing, is binding on you.

13.5. Bally Bet makes reasonable efforts to provide for the accuracy of information and data provided with respect to events, markets, odds, sports data, pricing, selections, and payouts. Bally Bet may source information and data from third parties, which is provided to you "as is" with no representation or warranty, and Bally Bet and its licensors, vendors and suppliers expressly disclaim any and all warranties (whether express or implied) as to the timeliness, accuracy or completeness of such information and data and accepts no responsibility or liability for any errors or omissions or any loss, direct or indirect, suffered by you as a result of your use or reliance on it. Your reliance and use of this information or data is entirely at your own risk.

13.6. You expressly acknowledge, understand, and agree that Bally Bet reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to correct any inaccuracy or error it determines exists with respect to such information and data. Bally Bet disclaims all representations and warranties that any information and data provided are accurate, error-free, or without delay, and further disclaims all liability for any and all inaccuracies, errors, and/or delays in any information and data on Bally Bet.

13.7. Bally Bet prohibits the structuring of bets to avoid federal currency transaction reporting thresholds.

13.8. Wagers are subject to Anti-Money Laundering standards, including triggers and requirements for filing of Currency Transaction Reports and other federally required filings.

14. Refunds and Voids

14.1. Any refund or void of a wager will be made by Bally Bet in its sole discretion and approval, subject to compliance with regulatory requirements.

14.2. Except as otherwise provided, prohibited, or required by or as otherwise set forth in applicable law, rules, and regulations (whether applicable to you or Bally Bet) or the terms, conditions, rules, policies, or other agreements of or with Bally Bet, wagers placed by you are subject to acceptance by Bally Bet. Even if a wager is accepted by Bally Bet, you acknowledge and agree and consent to Bally Bet refunding and voiding wagers, including, but not limited to, such consent as may arise under or be previously granted under or required by applicable law, rules and regulations or as otherwise set forth in the terms, conditions, rules, policies, or other agreements of or with Bally Bet.

14.3. You expressly consent to Bally Bet refunding or voiding any wagers that are prohibited by applicable law, rules, and regulations (whether applicable to you or Bally Bet), including, but not limited to, wagers on prohibited markets, wagers on events where the outcome of the event is known (regardless of any system errors that may arise permitting such a wager) and wagers in violation of the terms, conditions, rules, policies, or other agreements of or with Bally Bet.

14.4. Past-posted wagers are impermissible. You acknowledge and agree that you will not place or attempt to place any wager after the official start time of the event, other than in-play wagering markets, and that any such wager may be voided by Bally Bet in its sole discretion.

14.5. Wagers on events or markets where the outcome of the event or market is known are impermissible. You acknowledge and agree that you will not place or attempt to place any wager if the outcome of the event or market is known and that any such wager may be voided by Bally Bet in its sole discretion.

14.6. Subject to applicable laws, rules and regulations of the State of Louisiana and/or the Louisiana Gaming Control Board Bally Bet reserves the right to void and refund wagers on events and/or markets where a change in circumstance makes grading such wager an impossibility.

15. Obvious Errors

15.1. While Bally Bet makes reasonable efforts to avoid obvious errors (also referred to as palpable errors), Bally Bet reserves the right to settle a wager at the correct price or void the wager and refund the wagered amount, as set out below.

15.2. A non-exhaustive list of “obvious errors” is as follows:

15.2.1. The prices/terms offered are materially different from those available in the general market at the time the wager was placed;

15.2.2. The prices/terms offered at the time the wager is placed are clearly incorrect given the probability of the event occurring;

15.2.3. Odds or terms of a wager have been misquoted as a result of human or system errors, bugs or defects;

15.2.4. Errors which result from software and/or system bugs or defects;

15.2.5. Where Bally Bet continues to accept wagers on a market for an event which should have been suspended, including where the relevant event is in progress, has already finished, or the result of such event has been determined;

15.2.6. Where an error is made as to the amount of winnings/returns that are paid to you, including as a result of a manual or computer input error;

15.2.7. Where markets are created and graded for an event or matchup that does not exist.

15.3. Bally Bet reserves the right to correct any obvious error with respect to a wager placed, and to settle such wager at the correct price and/or terms applicable to such wager (absent the obvious error) at the time the wager was made, subject to applicable regulatory requirements.

15.4. If obvious errors occur, you acknowledge, understand, and agree that Bally Bet reserves the right to take corrective action to resolve any such obvious errors, including, but not limited to, canceling, voiding, or refunding of any wagers or winnings and crediting or debiting of your account to resolve the errors, subject to compliance with applicable regulatory requirements. You agree to cooperate with Bally Bet in resolving any such errors and returning any funds or winnings to Bally Bet that may have been paid to you as a result of such errors, including, but not limited to, Bally Bet reclaiming such funds or winnings from your Account and acknowledge that at all times, Bally Bet reserves the right to correct or otherwise resolve any such obvious errors in its discretion, subject to compliance with applicable regulatory requirements.

15.5. It is your responsibility to immediately notify Bally Bet and to cooperate with Bally Bet in resolution of any error or potential error related to your wagering or account activity.

15.6. If you have used or withdrawn any funds that have been credited or awarded to your account as a result of an error, including the use of such funds for the placement of wagers, you agree that Bally Bet may cancel such wagers and/or withhold any winnings from such wagers and that you will hold any funds credited to your account from such wagers in trust for Bally Bet and return such funds to Bally Bet upon demand for payment by Bally Bet.

15.7. By using the wagering products or services provided by Bally Bet, you acknowledge, understand, and agree that Bally Bet reserves the right to cancel, remove or otherwise change any of the services at any time.

16. Cash Out Wagers

16.1. Bally Bet may offer customers the opportunity to “cash-out” certain wagers (including pregame and in-play wagers) early by offering customers the option to settle their wager early based upon an offered value.

16.2. If the cash out is successful, a success message will be displayed, a record of the cash out will be available in your transaction history, and funds will be credited to your account.

16.3. Acceptance of a cash out offer is considered a wager, and is subject to all rules, regulations, limitations, and restrictions applicable to wagering, and must be executed within the State of Louisiana where the wager was placed.

16.4. Cash out may not be available on all wagers.

16.5. Cash out is not available on wagers placed using free wagers or other promotional credits.

16.6. Cash out may not be available to all customers.

16.7. Bally Bet reserves the right to reverse any cash out payout in case of errors or potential errors, including, but not limited to, incorrect calculations or pricing.

16.8. Bally Bet reserves the right to remove the cash out feature from customers where Bally Bet believes it is being misused or abused.

16.9. Cashing out a wager may disqualify you for particular promotions, subject to Bally Bet determination.

16.10. Cash out wagers that are in-play are subject to a delay before acceptance.

16.11. If cash out is available on wagers playing through bonuses, any cash earned on the playthrough of that wager would be converted back to bonus, available to be played through on subsequent eligible wager(s) provided the bonus has not expired.

17. Prohibited Wagers

17.1. No sports bet shall be accepted from a person under the age of twenty-one years, that does not originate in the State of Louisiana, and that does not conform to the laws or Regulations of the State of Louisiana.

17.2 Collegiate events that are not NCAA Division I sports (for college football, NCAA Division I includes both Football Bowl Subdivision and Football Championship Subdivision)

17.3 Wagers on any type of possible injury, unsportsmanlike conduct, or any other officiating call are not allowed. Wagers are not allowed on the occurrence of injuries or penalties, or the outcome of an athlete's disciplinary rulings, or replay reviews.

17.4 Wagers are not allowed on officiating calls, such as when will the first penalty flag be thrown, when will the first foul be called, what will be the game's first penalty.

18. Prohibited Participants

18.1. As provided by the Louisiana Gaming Control Board:

"Prohibited sports wagering participant" means any of the following individuals:

- (1) An individual that is prohibited from participating in sports wagering.
- (2) An individual listed on the commission's exclusion list kept under La. R.S. 27:27.1(D).
- (3) An individual that has signed up for statewide Internet self-restriction.
- (4) An occupational licensee employed by or associated with a supplier licensee.
- (5) An individual whose participation may undermine the integrity of the wagering or the sports event or who is excluded from wagering for other good cause, including, but not limited to, an attempt to place a wager as an agent or a proxy.

18.2 Bally Bet may restrict or prohibit individuals that are defined as Excluded Person(s) and/or Prohibited Participant(s) in the Terms of Use.

18.3 No members of an athletic organization may place wagers on the games or events of the organization in which they are associated with. This includes but is not limited to athletes, coaches, trainers, medical personnel, managers, team affiliates, any employee, contractors, or owners of any professional or collegiate teams.

18.3.1 Prohibited sports betting participant- means any person who is prohibited, any individual whose participation may undermine the integrity of the betting or the sports event, or any person who is prohibited for other good cause, including, but not limited to: any individual placing a wager as an agent or proxy; any person who is an athlete, coach, referee, player, in, or on, any sports event overseen by that person's sports governing body based on publicly available information; a person who holds a position of authority or influence sufficient to exert influence over the participants in a sporting contest, including, but not limited to, coaches, managers, handlers, or athletic trainers; a person with access to certain types of exclusive information on any sports event overseen by that person's sports governing body based on publicly available information, or a person identified by any lists provided by the sport's governing body to the Division.

19. Disputes

19.1. Bally Bet will attempt to resolve all patron disputes with the aggrieved patron. The patron has a right to make a complaint either in person, telephonically or electronically. The patron can also contact Bally Bet customer support team at Support@BallyBet.com, call 1-844-845-0084 or contact the Casino Management.

19.2 For complaints that cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the patron, the patron will be advised of their ability to file a complaint with the Division and provided with the information necessary to file such a complaint.

20. Responsible Gaming / Self Exclusion

20.1 If you are someone you know has a gambling problem, call 1-877-770-STOP (7867).

20.2 For questions regarding Responsible Gaming or Self-Limiting options, patrons can contact the Problem Gambling hotline, a Casino Employee or the Division.

20.3 Patrons who want to limit their gaming or exclude themselves from gaming will be directed to Louisiana State Police for placement on the Louisiana State Exclusion list.

21. Retail

SECTION 2: SPORTS SPECIFIC RULES

All sports listed below may not be offered in all jurisdictions. Only the rules for approved sports, leagues, and events in the jurisdiction in which you make the wager will apply.

1. Baseball and Softball

1.1. All games must start on the date and at the location specified for that game. If a game is postponed, relocated, cancelled, and/or rescheduled, all wagers in respect of that game will be declared "no action" and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

1.1.1 MLB Playoffs/World Series: All post season games are considered "action" regardless of when they're started, played, and/or completed. All other bet type rules apply.

1.1.2 If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all single game wagers related to that game/event shall be NO ACTION and refunded.

1.1.3 If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all Season long Team and player statistical props and wagers related to that game/event shall be ACTION. For example: The win and loss of the forfeited game will count, the player and team statistical total(s) wagers will have ACTION.

1.2. Action: A wager on Team vs Team regardless of starting pitchers.

1.2.1. Unless otherwise specified, only full game Money Lines are able to be bet in this manner

1.2.2. In the event of a pitching change prior to the start of the game, all full game Money Line wagers already placed will be adjusted to the opening price for the new pitcher

1.3. Listed: A wager in which one or both pitchers are specified and must start (throw the first pitch) to be considered “action”. If a specified pitcher does not throw the first pitch all bets will be refunded.

1.3.1 Off-Pitcher(s): All off pitcher(s) will be treated as an independent event for every change prior to the game. If the original scheduled pitchers are changed and then changed back to the original pitchers, only the wagers that were made after the last announced pitching change will have action.

1.4. All wagers include extra innings, unless specifically stated otherwise.

1.5. Money line wagers are considered “action” after 5 completed innings, or 4 1/2 completed innings if the home team is winning.

1.6. Run-line and total wagers are considered “action” after 9 completed innings, or 8 1/2 completed innings if the home team is winning.

1.7. If a game goes into extra innings, but does not finish (i.e., suspended, curfew, etc.), run-line and total wagers are considered “action”. Subject to section 1.1.1 in Baseball sport specific rule.

1.8. If a game is called or postponed after 5 completed innings of play (or 4 ½ completed innings if the home team is winning), wagers which are considered “action” are graded based on the score after the last full inning of play, unless the home team has scored to tie or to take the lead in the bottom half of the inning in which the game was called or postponed in which case wagers are graded based on the score at the time the game was called or postponed. Wagers which are declared to be “no action” will be refunded.

1.9. Games scheduled for less than a full 9 innings.

1.9.1. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if a game is scheduled for less than 9 innings (for example, a scheduled 7-inning game), the game must go the number scheduled innings, or the number of scheduled innings minus the bottom half of the final inning if the designated home team is winning, for run-line, total, propositional, and in-game wagers to be considered “action”. Money line wagers are considered action after 5 completed innings, or 4 1/2 completed innings if the home team is winning.

1.9.2. If scores are tied at the completion of the specific inning (period), then all wagers will be declared “no action” and refunded.

1.9.2.1. If the inning (period) is not completed, all wagers will be “no action” and refunded.

1.10. Inning or Period Specific Wagers.

1.10.1. For all inning (period) specific wagers, the listed pitchers must start for all wager types to be action.

1.10.2. The specific inning (period) money line winner will be determined as the team leading after the completion of the specific inning (e.g., 1st inning, 1st 3 innings, 1st 5 innings, 1st 7 innings).

1.10.3. The specific inning (period) run-line winner will be determined as the team leading after adding or subtracting the run-line at the end of the specific Inning (e.g., 1st inning, 1st 3 innings, 1st 5 innings, 1st 7 innings).

1.10.3.1. If the inning (period) is not completed, all wagers will be considered “no action” and refunded.

1.10.4. The specific inning (period) Total’s winner will be determined at the end of the specific inning (e.g., 1st inning, 1st 3 innings, 1st 5 innings, 1st 7 innings).

1.11. At Bat Proposition Wagers.

1.11.1. At Bat proposition wagers are determined when the player at bat gets to first base, second base, third base, home, is struck out, or is called out any other way for wagering purposes.

1.11.1.1. The player will be granted first base if he is walked, hit by a pitch, or catcher interference is called.

1.11.1.2. The player will be granted the base he reaches even if it is the result of an error.

1.11.1.3. If a batter reaches base on a fielder’s choice at the end of an inning, the proposition will be graded as ‘other out’.

1.11.1.4. If the batter strikes out but reaches base due to a passed ball or wild pitch, the proposition will be graded as 'first base'.

1.11.1.5. If the player reaches the base on a fielder's choice and it is not the last out of the inning, the proposition will be graded as the applicable base.

1.11.1.6. If a listed batter is pinch-hit for or does not complete his at bat for any reason, any wagers for the listed batter will be declared "no action" and refunded.

1.12. Player Proposition Wagers.

1.12.1. Proposition wagers in respect of a player will be declared "no action" and refunded if the applicable player does not participate in the applicable game.

1.12.2. In respect of a player proposition wager, a player is deemed to have participated in a game on the following basis:

1.12.2.1. if a player is a starting pitcher, they must start the game (throw the first pitch for their team)

1.12.2.2. if a player is a relief pitcher, they must enter the game and throw at least one (1) pitch

1.12.2.3. if the player is a fielder, they must take the field for at least one (1) play

1.12.2.4. if the player is a designated hitter, they must register at least one (1) plate appearance

1.13. NCAA Baseball Rules: The above Baseball and Softball wagering rules apply, except for the following:

1.13.1. If the mercy rule is invoked, games are considered "action".

1.13.2. If a regular season game ends in a tie, money line wagers will be declared "no action" and be refunded.

1.13.3. All wagers are considered "action" regardless of the pitchers who start.

2. Baseball and Softball In-Play

2.1. The above Baseball and Softball wagering rules apply to Baseball and Softball In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

2.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance.

2.1.2. Money line, run-line and total and proposition wagers will be declared “no action” and refunded unless at least 9 completed innings (or 8 1/2 completed innings if the home team is winning) are played. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a game is scheduled for less than 9 innings (for example, a scheduled 7-inning game), the game must go the number scheduled innings, or the number of scheduled innings minus the bottom half of the final inning if the designated home team is winning, for run-line, total, propositional, and in-game wagers to be considered “action”. Money line wagers are considered action after 5 completed innings, or 4 1/2 completed innings if the designated home team is winning.

3. Basketball

3.1. All games must be played on the date and at the location specified. If a game is postponed, cancelled, relocated and/or rescheduled, all wagers in respect of that game will be declared “no action” and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

3.1.1 If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all single game wagers related to that game/event shall be NO ACTION and refunded.

3.1.2. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all Season long Team and player statistical props and wagers related to that game/event shall be ACTION. For example: The win and loss of the forfeited game will count, the player and team statistical total(s) wagers will have ACTION.

3.2. Wagers on full game markets, including money line, point spread and totals, will be declared “no action” and refunded if the full scheduled length of play, including overtime, if applicable, is not completed, unless otherwise specified.

3.3. Wagers on first half, second half or quarter markets will be declared “no action” and refunded if the specified quarter or half is not played to its conclusion (including overtime, if applicable in respect of second half markets).

3.4. For wagers on full game and second half markets, overtime periods are included in the final score.

3.5. For certain markets, you may alter the original point spread offered by buying points in half-point increments for the cost specified in the bet slip, up to a maximum number of half-points permitted in the bet slip.

3.6. Player Proposition Wagers.

3.6.1. Proposition wagers in respect of a player will be declared “no action” and refunded if the applicable player does not participate in the applicable game.

3.6.2. A player is deemed to have participated in a game if the player takes the court during the game or the specified time period applicable to the proposition wager, as applicable.

4. Basketball In-Play

4.1. The above Basketball wagering rules apply to Basketball In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

4.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance.

4.1.2. Wagers on full game markets will be declared “no action” and refunded if the game is not played to its conclusion, including overtime, if applicable, unless otherwise specified.

5. Boxing, Mixed Martial Arts and Combat Sports

5.1. All Boxing, MMA and Combat Sports matches must go on the date specified to be considered “action”, unless otherwise specified.

5.2. For matches without a specified date at the time the wager is placed, the match must go on or before the outside date specified in the wager to be considered “action” (e.g., Fighter “X” and Fighter “Y” must fight by Dec. 31, 20XX.)

5.3. If no winner is declared, wagers will be declared “no action” and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

5.4. Wagers are considered “action”, regardless of the scheduled length of the match, once the bell (buzzer, etc.) sounds signifying the start of the opening round.

5.5. Wagers are considered “action” regardless of any changes in weight class, scheduled length of the bout, or championship sanction, unless otherwise specified.

5.6. Any wager in respect of a match that is deemed ‘No Contest’ will be declared “no action” and refunded.

5.7. Three-way money line wager: In a three-way money line wager, the draw option is graded as a win if the fight is declared a draw by the judges or a draw due to any technical stoppage. A wager on either fighter in a draw scenario in a three-way money line wager is graded as a loss.

5.8. “Will Go / Won’t Go” Wager:

5.8.1. In MMA and Boxing, a “Will Go / Won’t Go” wager is a wager on whether the total rounds will be over/under the established rounds in which the fight will go or won’t go.

5.8.2. A full round is defined as one in which the bell (buzzer, etc.) sounds, signifying the conclusion of said round.

5.8.3. If a fighter is counted out or the bout is officially stopped prior to the bell (buzzer, etc.) signifying the conclusion of a round, said round is not considered a full round for wagering purposes.

5.8.4. A half round is defined as the scheduled round length divided by two. For example, 1:30 into the 6th round of a 3 minute per round fight is considered 5 1/2 rounds for wagering purposes.

5.8.4.1. If the official time of the bout ends at the exact halfway mark of the round (i.e. 1:30 in Boxing/2:30 in MMA), the “under” wager is considered the winner.

5.8.5. If either fighter is unable to continue or the referee and/or doctor stops the fight in between rounds, the fight will revert to the last full round for wagering purposes.

5.9. Knock Out (KO), Decision, Draw, and Proposition Wagers:

5.9.1. All round, KO, TKO, and Draw proposition wagers will be declared “no action” and refunded if the scheduled length of the bout changes.

5.9.2. KO includes knockout, technical knockouts (TKO), disqualifications (DQ), or any other stoppage initiated by a fighter, fighter’s corner, or referee.

5.9.3. Decision Proposition Wagers:

5.9.3.1. Decision means the fight must go to the judge’s scorecard to determine the winner, including technical decisions.

5.9.4. Draw Proposition Wagers:

5.9.4.1. A draw for purposes of a draw proposition wager means a draw declared by the judges or a draw due to any technical stoppage

6. Boxing, Mixed Martial Arts and Combat Sports In-Play

6.1. The above Boxing, MMA and Combat Sport wagering rules apply to Boxing, MMA and Combat Sport In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

6.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance.

7. Football

7.1. All games must start on the date and at the location specified for that game. If a game is postponed, cancelled, relocated and/or rescheduled, all wagers in respect of that game will be declared “no action” and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

7.1.1 If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all single game wagers related to that game/event shall be NO ACTION and refunded.

7.1.2. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all Season long Team and player statistical props and wagers related to that game/event shall be ACTION. For example: The win and loss of the forfeited game will count, the player and team statistical total(s) wagers will have ACTION.

7.2. Wagers on full game markets, including money line, point spread and totals, will be declared “no action” and refunded if the full scheduled length of play, including overtime, if applicable, is not completed, unless otherwise specified

7.3. Wagers on first half, second half or quarter markets will be declared “no action” and refunded if the specified quarter or half is not played to its conclusion (including overtime, if applicable in respect of second half markets).

7.4. For wagers on full game and second half wagers, overtime periods are included in the final score.

7.5. For certain markets, you may alter the original point spread offered by buying points in half-point increments for the cost specified in the bet slip, up to a maximum number of half-points permitted in the bet slip.

7.6. Proposition Wagers.

7.6.1. Proposition wagers in respect of a player will be declared “no action” and refunded if the applicable player does not participate in the applicable game.

7.6.2. A player is deemed to have participated in a game if the player takes the field for at least one (1) play during the game or the specified time period applicable to the proposition wager, as applicable.

7.6.3. Notwithstanding Section 8.1.3 of the Sports Betting House Rules, proposition wagers in respect of an NFL or NCAA football postseason game (or a specified time period or event within such a game) may be placed up to fourteen (14) days before the applicable game takes place without being considered a Future Wager that is subject to the provisions of Section 9 of the Sports Betting House Rules.

8. Football In-Play

8.1. The above Football wagering rules apply to Football In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

8.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance.

8.1.2. Wagers on full game markets will be declared “no action” and be refunded if the game is not played to conclusion, including overtime, if applicable, unless otherwise specified.

9. Golf

9.1. A golf tournament must be completed within eight (8) days of the scheduled starting date for a wager in respect of that event to be considered “action”, unless otherwise specified.

9.2. All professional golf events will be graded in accordance with the governing body's result upon the conclusion of play, unless otherwise specified.

9.3. Match-Up Wagers:

9.3.1. Participants in match-up wagers must start the event or round, as applicable, or the wager will be declared "no action" and refunded. A participant who tees-off on his or her first hole of the event or round, as applicable, is considered to have started the event or round, as applicable.

9.3.2. The winner of the match-up wager will be the golfer with the better score in accordance with the rules of play of the tournament or event.

9.3.2.1. In round match-up wagers, if the round is extended for playoff purposes, the winner of the playoff wins the match-up wager, regardless of when the round finishes.

9.3.3. If a golfer continues play after his/her opponent is no longer in the tournament (i.e. withdrawn, disqualified, missed cut), the golfer with the most holes played wins the match-up.

9.3.4. If golfers are involved in a playoff, the winning golfer of the playoff wins the match-up.

9.3.5. If golfers are involved in a playoff involving more than 2 golfers, the golfer who plays the most holes wins the match-up.

9.4. Player Proposition Wagers:

9.4.1. Proposition wagers in respect of a player may only be made less than six (6) days before the start of an event.

9.4.2. Proposition wagers in respect of a player will be declared "no action" and refunded if such player does not "start" the event or round, as applicable. A player who tees-off on his or her first hole of the event or round is considered to have started the event or round, as applicable.

9.5. Future Wagers:

9.5.1. Future wagers in respect of a player are considered "action" regardless of whether such player qualifies for, starts or finishes an event. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a future wager is placed less than six (6) days before the start of an event and the applicable player withdraws from the event prior to the start of such event, the wager will be declared “no action” and refunded.

10. Golf In-Play

10.1. The above Golf wagering rules apply to Golf In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

10.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance.

11. Hockey

11.1. All games must be played on the date and at the location specified. If a game is postponed, cancelled, relocated and/or rescheduled, all wagers in respect of that game will be declared “no action” and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

11.1.1. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all single game wagers related to that game/event shall be NO ACTION and refunded.

11.1.2. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all Season long Team and player statistical props and wagers related to that game/event shall be ACTION. For example: The win and loss of the forfeited game will count, the player and team statistical total(s) wagers will have ACTION.

11.2. Wagers on full game markets, including money line, point spread and totals, will be declared “no action” and refunded if the full scheduled length of play, including overtime or a shootout, if applicable, is not completed, unless otherwise specified

11.3. Wagers on period markets will be declared “no action” and refunded if the specified period is not played to its conclusion.

11.4. Overtime goals are considered in the final score for all full game markets. In the event of a shootout, the winning team is awarded one goal which is also considered in the final score for all full game markets.

11.5. Player Proposition Wagers

11.5.1. Proposition wagers in respect of a player will be declared “no action” and refunded if the applicable player does not participate in the applicable game.

11.5.2. A player is deemed to have participated in a game if the player takes the ice during the game or the specified time period applicable to the proposition wager, as applicable.

12. Hockey In-Play

12.1. The above Hockey wagering rules apply to Hockey In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

12.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance.

12.1.2. Wagers on full game markets will be declared “no action” and refunded if the game is not played to its conclusion, including overtime and/or a shootout, if applicable, unless otherwise specified.

13. Motor Sports

13.1. These rules apply to all motor sports in which Bally Bet accepts wagers.

13.2. Unless otherwise specified, wagers are accepted for drivers only.

13.3. The race must run within 48 hours of its scheduled date to be considered “action”, unless otherwise specified.

13.4. For wagering purposes, the start of a race occurs when the green flag drops.

13.5. The unofficial order of finish as determined by the governing body at the conclusion of the race determines all wager results. Protests and overturned results are not recognized. The conclusion of the race is official when the race is determined to be final and declared unofficial by the governing body, even without all laps being completed.

13.6. When wagering on stages, all wagers will be declared “no action” and refunded if the specific stage is not run to its conclusion.

13.7. Match-up Wagers

13.7.1. Participants in event or stage match-ups must start the event or stage, as applicable, or the wager will be declared “no action” and refunded.

13.7.2. The winner of match-up wagers is based on the order of finish at the conclusion of the event or stage, as applicable.

13.8. Future wagers in respect of a driver are considered “action” regardless of whether such driver qualifies for, starts, or finishes a race. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a future wager is placed less than six (6) days before the start of a race and the applicable driver withdraws from the race prior to the start of such race, the wager will be declared “no action” and refunded.

14. Soccer

14.1. All matches must start on the date and at the location specified for that game. If a match is postponed, cancelled, relocated, and/or rescheduled, all wagers in respect of that match will be declared “no action” and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

14.1.1. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all single game wagers related to that game/event shall be NO ACTION and refunded.

14.1.2. If a governing body of a league rules that a team/individual must forfeit a game/event due to any circumstances, in advance of the game/event being started and/or completed on the field of play; all Season long Team and player statistical props and wagers related to that game/event shall be ACTION. For example: The win and loss of the forfeited game will count, the player and team statistical total(s) wagers will have ACTION.

14.2. All soccer markets, unless otherwise listed (e.g., To Lift Trophy), do not include extra time or shootouts.

14.3. Wagers on full match markets, 1st half markets and 2nd half markets will be declared “no action” and refunded if the following time periods are not completed:

14.3.1. Full match wagers: 90 minutes plus stoppage time, if any.

14.3.2. 1st half wagers: 45 minutes, plus stoppage time, if any.

14.3.3. 2nd half wagers: 45 minutes, plus stoppage time, if any.

14.4. Wagers (including totals) are graded based on the score at the end of regulation time for the applicable period (full match, 1st half, 2nd half) plus stoppage time, if any, in respect of the applicable period. Goals scored in any overtime period or in a shootout are NOT considered, unless otherwise specified.

15. Soccer In-Play

15.1. The above Soccer wagering rules apply to Soccer In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

15.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance

15.1.2. If the match is not completed on the scheduled date, all wagers will be declared “no action” and be refunded.

16. Tennis and Table Tennis

16.1. These rules apply to all tennis and table tennis events for which Bally Bet accepts wagers

16.2. One full set must be completed for the wager to be considered “action”.

16.3. A match must be completed within 7 days of the scheduled starting date to be considered “action”, unless otherwise specified.

16.4. When wagering on specific periods (e.g., on a set), all wagers will be declared “no action” and refunded if the specific period is not played to its conclusion.

16.5. All match wagers are considered “action” until the match is completed, regardless of weather, darkness, or any other delay, subject to Section 16.3

16.6. For match-up or other player proposition wagers, all players listed must start the match for the wager to be considered “action”.

16.7. Future wagers in respect of a player are considered “action” regardless of whether such player qualifies for, starts or finishes an event. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a future wager was made within six (6) days of the start of an event and the applicable player withdraws from the event prior to the start of such event, the wager will be declared “no action” and refunded.

17. Tennis In-Play

17.1. The above Tennis wagering rules apply to Tennis In-Play wagering, subject to the following:

17.1.1. Bally Bet may impose a delay on ALL in-play wagers prior to acceptance.

18. Australian Rules Football

18.1. All wagers are for full time including any extra time.

18.2. All matches must go on the originally scheduled date and at the originally scheduled site. If a match's date or site changes, all wagers will be declared "no action" and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

18.3. If a match starts but is abandoned before full time is completed, then all wagers will be declared "no action" and refunded.

19. Rugby

19.1. All wagers are for full time including any extra time or overtime

19.2. All matches must go on the originally scheduled date and at the originally scheduled site. If a match's date or site changes, wagers will be declared "no action" and refunded, unless otherwise specified.

19.3. If a match starts but is abandoned before full time is completed, then all wagers will be declared "no action" and refunded.

20. Rodeo/PBR

20.1. The event must be completed within eight (8) days of the scheduled starting date to be considered "action" unless otherwise specified.

20.2. For each event, all scheduled competition(s) must be completed and the sanctioning body for such competition(s) must declare a winner for each competition for wagers to be "action". Otherwise, all wagers will be declared "no action" and refunded.

20.3. Participants must start the event(s) or the wager will be declared "no action" and refunded. A participant who attempts to compete in their event(s) is considered to have started regardless of whether they continue in the rest of the event.

20.4. For match-up wagers, all participants must start for the wager to be considered “action”.

20.5. For events where two or more participants are declared tied, the dead heat rules apply, unless a draw option was offered in which case the draw will be graded as the winner and all other selections will be graded as losers.

21. OLYMPICS

21.1 All events will be settled based on the official International Olympic Committee (IOC) podium results.

21.2 Wagering on the Championship Medal Counts will be settled following the final event and according to the IOC.

21.3 If an event is postponed during the Olympics, wagers will stand as long as the event is completed prior to the Closing Ceremony

21.4 For an event with a time limit, such as basketball, the full time of the game must be completed for a wager to be considered “action”.

21.5 Proposition wagers must be played to the conclusion of the specified time period or will be considered “no action” and be refunded.

21.6 Medal Winners:

21.6.1 In the event that a competitor is disqualified, including for false starts, wagers will be treated as “action” and no refunds.

21.6.2 Medal Winners are considered “action”, as long as a winner is officially declared and the event is completed prior to the Closing Ceremony.

21.7.1 Future wagers are considered “action” as long as a winner is officially declared, regardless of event/team relocation, rained out events, season length, etc., unless otherwise specified. Vacated wins and/or Championships not recognized. No refunds on future book wagers.

21.7.2 Future wagers that are offered seven days or more in advance of the start date will have no refunds. All bets are “action”.

21.7.3 You understand that certain teams or participants may not be offered as a wager option. If the prohibited team/participant happens to be the winner of the bet, then all bets on the event will be graded as losers.

21.8 Olympic Match-ups:

21.8.1 All events will be settled based on the official International Olympic Committee results.

21.8.2 If in a head-to-head match, both competitors/teams are eliminated in the same round, the wager is settled on who has achieved the better qualifying mark based on the IOC tie break procedures.

The official order of finish as determined by the IOC at the conclusion of the race determines all wager results. Protest and overturned results are not recognized.

* * Pushes and refunds in a parlay will cause the wager to reduce to the remaining number of valid selections and reduce the win amount in a corresponding manner based on the remaining valid selections. If the parlay reduces to a single selection, the wager will payout as a straight wager based on the price of the remaining selection price. If the parlay is a progressive parlay the selection that PUSHES is considered a losing selection and will pay appropriately to the progressive parlay pay chart. **

Maximum Win for a wager will be $550,000.00

Teasers are sport-specific, no mixed-sport teasers

Pushes and refunds in a teaser will cause the wager to reduce to the remaining number of valid selections and the win amount to reduce in a corresponding manner based on the number of remaining valid selections to the appropriate payout from the pay-chart associated with the wager. If the teaser reduces to a single selection, the wager will be declared “no action” and refunded. **

Teasers will be a loser when one of the valid selections in the teaser fails to cover the teased selection(s) regardless of the result of the other selections. **

* If any of the valid selections in the parlay pushes that selection is a loser. If a game is NO ACTIONED because of cancellation or postponement based on the individual sports rules then that selection will reduce the parlay to the next valid selection level. If the resulting NO ACTIONED selection brings the valid selections to less than 4 selections, the entire wager will be refunded. ****
